

Information for authors

Semi-annual Far Eastern Mathematical Journal (FEMJ) is published by the Far Eastern Branch of the Russian Academy of Sciences. The journal publishes articles both in Russian and English languages on all areas of pure and applied mathematics, mechanics, containing a summary of original results not previously published and not considered for publication elsewhere. In agreement with the editor-in-chief, FEMJ publishes reviews and small notes containing essentially new results.

Article format

The editorial board recommends to be guided by the following rules. Articles prepared without compliance with these rules will be rejected.

General provisions

1. All articles should be submitted to the editorial board in one copy.
2. Article should be signed by all authors. The final version of an article should be carefully checked, as proofreading is not sent to the author.
3. Articles which are results of work carried out in the institutions must have referral from them.
4. The beginning of article must contain UDC and MSC2020 classifier indexes, names of authors, title of article and abstract.
5. The abstract must contain at least 250 words and be a short summary of the article of the following form: the purpose of the study, methods, results and conclusion. The annotation includes keywords written at the end on a separate line.
6. At the end of the article (after the references), the surnames and initials of the authors, their affiliation, the title of article, abstract and keywords should be written in English transcription.
7. It is necessary to specify the e-mail addresses of all authors and the author responsible for the correspondence with the editors.
8. The size of article usually should not exceed 25 journal pages. Articles exceeding that limit are approved for publication in exceptional cases by decision of the editorial board. The topics and the amount of reviews should be agreed with the editor-in-chief. A small notes should be about 3-5 pages.
9. References to unpublished articles the results of which are used in the proof are not permitted.
10. Request of the editorial board on the revision of the article does not mean that the article is approved for publication, as it will again be considered by reviewers and then by the editorial board. Revised version of article should be sent to the editorial board with response to the notes of the reviewers.
11. The editorial board reserves the right not to sent back the copy of rejected article and not to discuss the motives of rejection.

Requirements to preparing of articles

1. It is preferable to use $\text{\LaTeX}2_\epsilon$ for preparation file of article. The editors thoroughly recommend to follow the requirements written below. Providing the file in any other dialect of \TeX can slow down passing the article.
2. The article template including all necessary files can be downloaded from the link http://www.iam.khv.ru/femj/auxfiles/example_en.zip.
3. It is not allowed to override standard \TeX and \LaTeX commands. To define a new macro use $\backslash\text{newcommand}$ instead of $\backslash\text{def}$. It is recommended to minimize the quantity of custom macro.
4. Drawings in the article can be prepared by the appropriate \LaTeX graphic packages. It is also allow to create drawings in Encapsulated Post Script format using any graphic software which is scalable image file format such as Adobe Illustrator, CorelDraw, etc.
5. All articles listed in the bibliography must be referenced in the text. The order of the references as mentioned in the text.
6. References should be prepared using AMSBIB style.

7. Prepared article should be sent to one of the following e-mail addresses: FEMJ@iam.dvo.ru or femjpublish@gmail.com.

Editorial board of the Far Eastern Mathematical Journal office 413, 34 Dzerzhinsky street, Khabarovsk, Russia
Mailing address: Institute of applied mathematics, Khabarovsk division, post office box 66, Khabarovsk, Russia
Phone/Fax +7(4212)324676
E-mail FEMJ@iam.dvo.ru, femjpublish@gmail.com